How Utterly Ridiculous

It is to say that "Cunningham is a high price undertaker!"

Regardless of wealth, everyone shares alike in the same efficient service that has characterized "Cunningham" for 25 years. The price of the casket is entirely a matter of your own choice —and the wonderful chapel with the services of an organist is free to all!

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Another Twenty Million Bond Issue

Next Tuesday, with very little warning or discussion, a $20,000,000 South Park Bond issue will be submitted to the people. All but $3,000,000 of this is to be used in extending Grant Park, Roosevelt Blvd. and the north and eastern part of the district. We note that the west, or Englewood district, is not mentioned, so it looks very much as if we may have the pleasure of paying about 60 per cent of the amount with possible no per cent benefit. While very much in favor of beautifying our city, we do think our local district should have some definite benefit, and until this is assured us, we advise voting "No" on the proposition.

All income tax schedules must be filed by March 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loofborrow of Milwaukee, formerly of Chicago, are in Los Angeles, Cal., and will visit other points along the coast before their return the latter part of March.

Englewood Ignored by Park Board

The South Park Board vacancy has been filled by the re-election of Lemuel B. Patterson, another Hyde Park man. A contest was made to elect Emil Seipp, a contract banker of South Chicago, but at no time was the western part of the district in the running. The vote stood 12 to 8 of the Circuit Court judges. It is charged that a contractors' ring seeks control for the fat pickings that drop from the Board. Well, another member is to be chosen next February, and we should begin right now to campaign for a good Englewood man to fill the place. A district that pays over 60 per cent of the taxes this board dispenses, should certainly have more than one-fifth representation. Now all get together and pull.

An "old times" social will be given at the Englewood Baptist church Monday evening next. Old time costumes will prevail.

Work is progressing night and day on the new Stratford theatre at 63rd st. and Union ave., and it will surely be opened by May 1st. This will be an event in Englewood theatrical circles and will be the biggest sort of a boost for all 63rd st., as it will be the largest and probably the finest theatre building in the city, seating about 3,000 and modern to the minute, in every particular.

"The Plumb Plan of Railroad Operation"

This will be the subject of the lecture of Samuel O. Dunn, editor of the Railway Age at the People's Liberal Church next Sunday evening at 7:45. It would be difficult to find a man in this broad land who may speak with greater information and authority on anything concerning the railways, their operation and control than Mr. Dunn, and it is a compliment to the committee that they secured so well posted a man. It is needless to say the audience will get information at first hand and Mr. Dunn's lecture will be well worth hearing. In the morning Dr. R. A. White, the minister of the church, will deliver a sermon at 10:30 on "Making Over Our Minds." It almost seems superfluous of us to mention anything in praise of Dr. White, as he and his eloquence, his big broad views and his open mindedness is so well known to our readers that they well know what he has to say on any subject will not be only interesting but instructive. No creed, no prejudice bars his views, and his absolute fairness and justice on all subjects makes a sermon by Dr. White a treat. No admission price, everyone cordially welcome.

Civic Music Choruses

The combined Civic Music Choruses of Hamilton and Sherman Parks are arranging a concert and community meeting at Hamilton Park for Tuesday, Feb. 24th. The choruses will sing William Lester's cantata, "The Story of the Bell," under the direction of John Norton, leader of the Hamilton Park chorus. The solo portions will be rendered by professional singers furnished by the Civic Music Association of Chicago. The second part of the program will consist of community singing, short talks by members of the Civic Music Association, also by Mr. Norton; and a group of soprano and baritone solos by the assisting vocalists. Altogether, a delightfully informal evening for the people of the community is being planned. The music to be offered is very attractive, and it is expected the assembly hall will be filled to capacity.

Fifty points within twenty miles of Chicago may be reached over the lines of the Chicago Telephone Company by simply giving the prefix and number in the same manner as when making local calls.

Many telephone users are under the mistaken impression that they must call Long Distance when making a call to a point outside the city limits.

This is not the case. There is a list of Express points given on Page X of the Telephone Directory to which subscribers' attention is invited. In it will be found the names of places that, by simply looking up the name in the directory and calling the prefix and number opposite, much time will be saved.

When Long Distance is called for these points, the Long Distance operator must in every case refer the call back to the local operator for completion.

Death of Mr. Joseph B. Holmes

On February 11, 1920, occurred the death of Joseph B. Holmes at his residence, 342 65th st. Mr. Holmes was born at Isle le Moir near Montreal and came in early boyhood to Bloomington, Ill. Here he engaged in business and was prominent in church, political and Masonic circles. He was a member of Wade Barney Lodge No. 512, A. F. & A. M., Bloomington Chapter No. 26, De Molay Commandery No. 24, Scottish Rite and Mohammed Shrine. Interment was at Bloomington, Ill.

Towering as a mighty oak in his strength, his passing takes another stalwart pioneer whose efforts converted these rolling prairies of Illinois into the habitations we now enjoy.

In his death the community loses a good citizen and his family a loving and respected father. He leaves to mourn his death Drs. Ralph and Philip Holmes, Mrs. R. A. Anderson and Miss Laura Louise Holmes.

His was a sturdy, stalwart Christian character and his word was his bond. Of him it may truthfully be said: "His life was simple, and the elements so mixed in him that nature could stand up and say to all the world: 'This was a man'."

Death of Dan A. Brown

Dan A. Brown was found dead in his bed at his home, 7148 Emerald ave., Tuesday morning. His remains were removed to a chapel and afterwards taken to his old home in Springfield, Ill., for burial.

Dan A. Brown came to Englewood about 1897 and at once took his place as a leader in Republican politics. He founded the original Roosevelt Club in 1901 and spent much time, money and effort in organizing clubs throughout the union. He was an enthusiastic Republican all of his life, and a hustling worker. He was a warm hearted friend, a loving and devoted husband and father and one of the most patriotic American's that breathed God's pure Illinois air, and his proudest boast was that as a child he remembered his father's neighbor Abraham Lincoln, and never visited his old home in Springfield without visiting the tomb of the martyred hero president.

Carrying a Ton a Mile for less than a Cent

Freight rates have played a very small part in the rising cost of living.

Other causes—the waste of war, under-production, credit inflation—have added dollars to the cost of the necessities of life, while freight charges have added only cents.

The average charge for hauling a ton of freight a mile is less than a cent.

A suit of clothing that sold for $30 before the war was carried 2,265 miles by rail from Chicago to Los Angeles for 16½ cents.

Now the freight charge is 22 cents and the suit sells for $50.

The cost of the suit has increased 20 dollars.

The freight on it has increased only 5½ cents.

Other transportation charges enter into the cost of the finished article—carrying the wool to the mills and the cloth to the tailors—but these other charges amount to but a few cents more.

The $10 pair of shoes that used to sell for $5 goes from the New England factory to the Florida dealer for a freight charge of 5⅔ cents—only one cent more than the pre-war rate.

Beef pays only two-thirds of a cent a pound freight from Chicago to New York.

American freight rates are the lowest in the world.

Combined burlesque and musical comedy are offered this season by Messrs. Herk, Kelly and Damsel in their annual tour of the "Cabaret Girls" company and with something novel, to an extreme, and comical in its every line, patrons of the Englewood Theatre are assured an attraction, the superior of which has not been seen in this city.

Having surrounded himself with an aggregation of recognized stars of burlesque, musical comedy and vaudeville, Ben Holmes, producer of the 1919-20 edition of the "Cabaret Girls," has written and staged a two-act comedy which fairly permeates the air with joyfulness.

Fred C. Hackett with the "Cabaret Girls" Next Week

In addition to Mr. King, Sheahan and Hackett, who participate in virtually all of the comedy situations which are presented in the two-act vehicle, such prominent women as Dot Barnette, soubrette superb; Leona Fox, prima donna extraordinary, and Bertha Startzman, a dashing ingenue who is pretty, graceful and vivacious.

"Let's Go" is the title of the two-act comedy and with six gorgeous scenes and a wonderfully well gowned chorus of twenty dashing ponies and show girls, burlesque patrons are assured something entirely away from the ordinary presentation of burlesque entertainment. The "Cabaret Girls" will open At the Englewood Theatre on Feb. 22nd for a week's showing.

Comes to Us At Last in the Great "Glad" Play for Which the Amusement Loving World Has Long Waited

"POLLYANNA"

From Eleanor H. Porter's Novel, "Pollyanna"
Published by the Page Company
Screen Adaptation by Frances Marion

MARY PICKFORD

That play that goes through your veins and into your heart and lo! you find yourself loving even your enemies and trying to good by them.

A picture that radiates gladness into others hearts. An art that it not a gift of genius. An art that can be learned as any other accomplishment. An art that is a philosophy of life whose first beatitudes are: Blessed are the Joymakers, for theirs shall be the Kingdom of Heaven! Blessed are the searchers after brightness, for they shall be spared, and spare others, the darkness of life.

You owe it to yourself and your family to see this play.

MARGUERITE CLARK

MARGUERITE CLARK
In a Sprightly Love Story
"All of a Sudden Peggy"

Ernest Denny's big stage laugh hit! At last on the screen and filled with charm of the loveliest girl in pictures, Marguerite Clark as an Irish lass who married off her mother by pretending to be married herself. But Peggy soon discovered that husband was no figurehead—and you'll sit up and notice the rest! A picture sparkling with fun, charged with conflict, dancing with all-of-a-sudden surprises.

Harvard

A feature of the Harvard theatre now is the par excellence of the music. Not only is the appropriate music of the screen played, but also artistic selections that are drawing many plaudits from the appreciative audience. Some of the solo work is especially worthy of mention and lovers of good music certainly enjoy the work of the symphony orchestra at this popular house.

Friday and Saturday, Feb. 20th and 21st, matinee and night. Winsome Marguerite Clark in a sprightly love story, "All of a Sudden Peggy." A breezy, romantic comedy, rippling with youth and the joy of life. She was all Irish—and all-of-a-sudden! One morning the papers, with her consent, announced she was married. But she wasn't! And what's more she refused to marry her "husband." What was her game? Come and laugh while you find out. Also a 2-part Sunshine comedy, "The Star Boarder," Mutt & Jeff and Pathe News. Saturday matinee only, "The Invisible Hand."

Sunday and Monday, Feb. 22nd and 23rd, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. The most likeable chap on the screen, Charles Ray, in his most appealing picture, "Red Hot Dollars." The story of a boy's grit, a girl's devotion and a couple of old men who learn that love is better than hate.

One day only, Tuesday, Feb. 24th, matinee and night, Robert Warwick in "The Tree of Knowledge." "The Tree of Knowledge" is an absorbing story of the pernicious influence of a female flirt and her final vanishing by one of her victims. There is a beautiful prelude in which Theodore Kosloff, the Russian dancer, and Yvonne Gardelle enact in pantomime the ancient legend of Adam and his fabled first wife, Lilith.

Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 25th and 26th, matinee and night, Thomas H. Ince presents his specially supervised production, "Dangerous Hours." It is the big Thomas H. Ince production, "Dangerous Hours," which tells a thrilling love story against the background of the Red menace of Bolshevism. Spectacular scenes are laid in America and Russia. The film is declared to be in no way propaganda—simply a gripping motion picture. Barbara Castleton and Lloyd Hughes are the featured players.

LINDEN THEATRE

The rapidly increasing patronage of the popular Linden Theatre is no doubt due to the fact that Manager Thomas Johnson is ever alive to the requirements of his patrons and is clever enough to put over such productions as appeals to them. This is an art in the film game and "Tom" knows the ins and outs, which linked with service, courtesy and close attention to details, and last, but not least, an exceptionally good orchestra and pipe organ, makes the Linden a very popular photo playhouse.

Last chance today—Friday, Feb. 20th. Marguerite Clark in "All of a Sudden Peggy," a Paramount-Artcraft picture from the famous stage hit by Ernst Denny. Did you ever hear of a girl who not only wasn't afraid of spiders, but actually fondled them and kept them as pets? Marguerite Clark is that unusual kind of a young feminine person in her new picture. Extra attraction, Rolin Comedy, International News and Pathe Review.

Saturday, Feb. 21st, Bessie Barriscale in "The Luck of Geraldine Laird." The popular star in a play which well illustrates the versatility of the world-famous portrayer of human interest roles. Also Mutt and Jeff and Kinogram News.

Sunday, Feb. 22nd, Monroe Salisbury in "His Divorced Wife." How big a sacrifice would you make for a friend? Would you lay down your life for your best friend? Big things to ask, aren't they? Come and see this picture and have the question answered. Also smashing good comedy.

Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 23rd and 24th, "Dangerous Hours," with an all-star cast. It's a picture that will hold your interest from start to finish and will send you home with something to think about. Come early and see it.

Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 25th and 26th, Thos. H. Ince presents Douglas MacLean and Doris May, two very popular stars, the same two who put "23½ Hours' Leave" and "What's Your Husband Doing?" on the map, in "Mary's Ankle." Fact was, Doctor needed cash, but could get it from Uncle only when he married a wife. So, Doc asked Mary, "Let's pretend," and Mary said, "O. K." But when Uncle took them at their word and hustled them into a bridal suite on a ship headed south—the rest is a hurricane of fun.

Coming, Feb. 29th, March 1st and 2nd, "The Copperhead," without a doubt the greatest photoplay of the age.

EMPRESS THEATRE

When anyone tells of something witty and sharp, or hums a pretty new song, the usual challenge is "Did you hear that at the Empress?" It is generally understood that the brightest and best in song or vaudeville acts will be seen there and there are no disappointments In addition to the smart vaudeville, Manager Harry Mitchell books the very best first run of pictures and screen attractions that make a show in themselves.

Few houses have the facilities of securing the bookings of the top liners that the Empress gets Manager Mitchell is known as a veteran show man, and most artists coming to Chicago want a date at the Empress, and the booking agents act accordingly, hence many of the best big circuit people who are seldom seen outside of the biggest 'loop" houses are regular ones at the Empress. The splendid size of the house, it's many seats and large seating capacity, enables them to play expensive attractions that a smaller house could not in safety attempt. Added to this is the reliable attendance which insures a good audience at every performance, matinee and evening and every seat is filled by the appreciative people who want to keep abreast of the times in things new, novel and entertaining. Special matinees for ladies who go to 63rd and Halsted on their shopping trips are offered and always some dainty bit of the program is for their benefit, that is why the Empress is the favorite with the ladies. Every show at the Empress is a good one, and you will spend a pleasant afternoon or evening any time you favor them with your presence

NATIONAL THEATRE

Starting next Sunday matinee, Feb. 22nd, there will be much fun at the National Theatre when the National Theatre Co. will present for the first time in Chicago "Please Get Married," Oliver Morosco's honeymoon farce. The story of the play, briefly, is that Ferdinand Oliver Walton wants to marry Muriel Ashley, who wants to marry him The young lady's parents desire the marriage but Ferdinand's father, who has been married twice, neither time taking, is against the thing. To frustrate the elopement, Walton, Sr., bribes the clergymen in the immediate surrounding country and thinks that he has staved off the inevitable As a matter of fact, the Ashley bungalow is burglarized and a clergyman suffering from amnesia, who is one of the burglars, performs the ceremony The young people's parents believe that there has been no marriage and then ensues frantic efforts to have a regular ceremony performed before the night shall have passed.

The first act is very witty and the second act is very racy and the third act very proper, thus sandwiching a theme that will be relished very much by the National patrons. There will be a bargain matinee Monday, Washington's Birthday, and on Thursday. This play is considered the laugh hit of the season

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre at 62nd and Halsted Sts. has the reputation of putting on the most popular of the latest films, the snappy, vigorous up-to-the-minute kind that grip and bind and make you remember the show long after you have gone home. Manager Frank is one of the shrewdest of bookers and the fact that he has run a certain film at his house is evidence of its excellence.

New Wonder Serial is Produced Like a Big Feature Picture

One of the greatest serials ever made will be seen at the Halsted Theatre next week, beginning Saturday, Feb. 21st, first run in Englewood. "Lightning Bryce" is the name of this serial, and there will be fifteen episodes. The story was laid in the West and it is said that there are a great many feature touches to this serial that are seldom seen in serials.

Ann Little and Jack Hoxie are the stars and they are called upon to do many daring and dangerous stunts. Paul Hurst, who directed "Lightning Bryce," also plays the part of Solvang, and is the villain in the serial. "Lightning Bryce" contains more thrilling stunts and daring deeds than others will star. Don't miss a single show. Watch these columns of the Times each week and keep posted. It will be well worth your while.

"Charlie Chaplin in "A Day's Pleasure" will be shown at this theatre Sunday, Feb. 22nd. This picture begins with the funniest scene ever shown in a motion picture. And the following scenes are guaranteed to intoxicate any audience with laughter."

Those instrumentalities that have caused gales of laughter in other

Scene from LIGHTNING BRYCE

At the Halsted Theatre Saturday, February 21st

can be found in any other serial. Every reel has at least one stunt that is dangerous and daring, and some of the reels contain many of these stunts. See the first episode and then follow it to the finish.

In addition to this wonderful serial and to make good our claim for "An All-Star Show," we will show other pictures in which Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, Wm. S. Hart, Tom Mix and Chaplin productions have all to be incorporated in this picture. A close examination shows that it is not only the funniest of all Chaplin pictures but that it is one of the cleanest motion picture comedies ever filmed.

"A Day's Pleasure" is Chaplin's fourth million dollar picture under his contract with First National Exhibitors' Circuit.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The great Saturday and Sunday attraction at the Marlowe Theatre this week will be the celebrated "Bud," the great movie star "himself," in person, of the Ham and Bud comedies with his company of beautiful girls in a big musical comedy company. Remember it will be "Bud" in person, and you know what that means in fun and laughter.

No theatre house in the city has a clearer reputation for good shows than the Marlowe. Besides having a regular program of unusual excellence, they are always in the front rank with special attractions and features of unusual merit. Under the efficient management of Harry Crawford, the Marlowe is the house of merit that attracts all members of the family. The mother and father, the big brother and the sister enjoy it as well as the kiddies do the special Saturday matiness when something especially choice is saved for the little ones who get nice, clean, wholesome amusement at nominal prices, hence the Marlowe is the family theatre.

The regular programs are: Every Monday night the local hat contest, at which a beautiful sky piece is awarded some lady, whose choice is left to the audience and the fortunate lady wears a beautiful hat home. On Tuesday nights come the local song contest as well as that of the professional song publishers' song revue. This is an added attraction also, as on both nights there are five or more professional vaudeville acts with feature pictures. On Wednesday and Thursday nights of each week in addition to the feature pictures and other attractions they have a delightful musical comedy, something really good and attractive, a bevy of beautiful songsters and dancers with some of the richest costuming and scenery mounts shown in the city. On Fridays they offer the professional vaudeville revue at which seven or more artists present their acts before an audience of managers who select their talent for the coming week's bookings. On Saturdays and Sundays, matinees both days, they always have at least six big vaudeville acts, feature pictures and specialties that make them the gala nights of the week. The Marlowe always has a good show and you will enjoy it and may bring your entire family to help you enjoy it.

EMPRESS THEATRE

Many in fact most people like a diversity in their amusements and right here is where the Empress theatre caters to your taste. In addition to showing a good run of feature pictures, they put on a vaudeville program unequalled by any house outside of the loop. They have a special arrangement in their bookings which includes many of the best on all the circuits and the stars of all kinds are glad to be considered good enough for the discriminating audiences of the Empress. They make a point of getting all attractions of diverse character, musical, entertainers that are operatic stars favor the audiences here, the many stunts new, novel and entertaining, that go to only the best houses are all booked at the Empress, and it makes no difference what day or night you visit the Empress you are sure to be entertained and amused. Get the habit, come once and we know you will be regular.

The program at the Vernon Theatre the coming week is one of exceptional merit and in part is: For Saturday, a double feature of Viola Dana in "The Willow Tree" and Charley Chaplin in "Fireman." On Sunday they present the wonderful picture of Charles Ray in "Red Hot Dollars," on Monday they have Bessie Barriscale in "The Luck of Geraldine Laird," and Tuesday Sessue Hayakawa in the most fascinating picture of his career, "The Beggar Prince," and on Wednesday the special feature, "Soldiers of Fortune." Of course with these features will come comedies of merit, real rib busters and the usual scenic and travelogues that go to make the Vernon's programs most interesting and meritorious.

When James Barry, the Englewood man, bought the Vernon, his many home friends knew he would give a good show and many have formed the habit of visiting his parlor play house. At first it was a matter of compliment to "Jim," but soon the excellence of the program and the comfortable house made it a habit and as a result the Vernon is drawing a very liberal patronage from Englewood and this vicinity. The bookings at the Vernon are among the very best, all the big features are secured and no passe or stale bills will be seen, and we take pleasure in commending the excellent house to our readers.

He will discuss the question of the illness, promising to trace some of the shafts of light that shoot through the clouds. Washington Was Thrifty In Youth Biographers relate that George Washington opened a bank account when he was sixteen years old. He had a job with a surveyor.

Youth is the accepted time for opening a bank account. It is never too late, however.

All great fortunes have had modest beginnings. Many men have made fortunes after middle life.

See us today about opening an account.

OUR WASHINGTON

Where the lordly Potomac thro' vistas of beauty
Sweeps with a song to the far-away sea,
America's chieftain, the hero of duty,
WASHINGTON, rests in the shade of the tree;
His fame is still bright, tho' the cycles have vanished,
His valor is written in Liberty's tome;
His name is immortal and ne'er can be banished—
Forevermore cherished in heart and in home.

Have you decided yet which landlord you are to let rob you this year?

If bread, potatoes and the commodities keep on "going up," us poor fellows will have to diet on turkey, pie and cake.

With bread going up and flour going down in price, it sort of reconciles a fellow to stand an increase in rent.

George Washington may have owned a distillery as reported, but was too wise to hold on to it until prohibition went into effect.

Newspapermen generally revere the memory of Washington—yes it is probably because both have such respect for the truth—help!

We know of a lot more people who will emigrate to Cuba if the presidential choice rests between Bill Bryan and William Randolph Hearst.

It comes a lot cheaper to run for office now than when the saloons were running and each candidate supposed to have an open bill at each bar.

There necessarily will be little moving this spring, but then the movers syndicate will see that it costs those who do move enough to make up for it.

"Button, button, whose got the—fur coat" exchanged at the Englewood Woman's Club meeting for a very tacky looking cloth coat? Honest to Mike it wasn't me, I can prove I am not a "perfect 36" by twenty majority.

I wish the drill sergeant at the Englewood High would teach his "buck privates" to turn to the right, and not sweep the entire street in flank formation every time they are on the streets out of ranks.

You may dodge the undertaker, but don't try it on with the income tax man or he will lead you a bad quarter of an hour. Better see him and be honest about it as he will search you down to the filling of your back teeth, and his sources of knowledge are miraculous.

Hdye Park has a few streets that the South Park have not as yet boulevarded and they ask the rest of the district to provide the funds in a twenty million dollar bond issue. Of course we do not care for the trifling amount, but we would just like to have the board spend about 20c of it in Englewood or the west of State St. district.

Ellsworth Lodge of Pythians place me under obligation for a beautiful bronze medal of Lincoln conferred on the anniversary of that heroic character. Besides the honor, we appreciate the fact that so long as we keep the medal, we shall never be in financial straits, as for a poor newspaperman it is some assurance never to be "broke" and this Lincoln penny will always keep us from that painful dilemma.

Julius Johnson Against Jim Rea for Committeeman

The Deneen and Brundage factions of the Republican party have united on Julius A. Johnson as a candidate for ward committeeman to run against Jim Rea who is backed by the Thompson element. This will be one of the warmest contests of the campaign.

A Credit to Englewood Police

About nine o'clock on the evening of Lincoln's birthday two young housebreakers attempted to enter the first apartment of 253 Marquette Rd. They were discovered by the occupants of the second apartment, who called the police. Officers Hulton, Clark and Odell arrived within four minutes and caught the boys and discovered jewelry, searchlight, etc., on them. The boys are now in the county jail held to the grand jury. These detectives should certainly be congratulated upon their effective work. More work of this kind would soon rid Englewood of its lawbreakers.

He has a hope for both, and dares to present it.

Beautiful spires will be erected on the front, and the new part which is now only enclosed will be finished and opened with the main body of the church, this being necessary by the great increase in the attendance at the services. Father Ryan has made many improvements in the church property including the schools and parochial residence, and the finishing of the church edifice will make St. Bernard's one of the finest parochial establishments in the diocese.
